I remember back in the days when people had time to be friends. Butch and Sharon lived upstairs of Kenny and me when we lived in Valley Grove when our kids were very young. The last chance I had a chance to visit with him Kenny and I made a date to meet Damon and we met at the time was Maty's Lunch in triadelphia and when we went in Butch was there. We had a growling BS session. I am so sorry for the family's loss . For a brief time it was like gotback in time. Thinking of Sharon and your family. Sue Wallace

Butch,
I have no words except we Love you and Miss you. You are one person who loved life to it's fullest. No one knows when God will call us home. I know Heaven has gained an Angel.
Thank you for being a wonderful Friend and Neighbor for so many years, and please watch over us. Rest in Peace!
