It's been almost a decade but I was walking through the mall the other day and saw a cardinal figurine and just broke down in tears thinking about her. I miss cody and stealing cinnamon rolls out of your kitchen and especially you aunt vik

Aunt Vicki was the sweetest, most positive and beautiful person. She always had a joke or a story to tell. Always ready to play a game (usually uno). I am so happy I had her in my life and that my 3 sons and husband had the privilege of knowing her. We love you Aunt Vick.

What a beautiful person she was! Always smiling, happy to help and the biggest heart anyone could ever have in life! This earth and your friends will miss you deeply Vicki! She was one of life's BEST! Gonna miss you! The good Lord is waiting patiently for those just like you. I know you are in heaven now and at peace. It was a PLEASURE to know you! Thoughts and prayers to the family. Suzanne

My condolences to the family of Vicki. I worked at PPG from 1955-1962. My mother, Mauna Glover, worked at PPG from 1957-1973. Mother knew and worked with Vicki during those years. She mentioned Vicki numerous times to me. Although I did not personally know Vicki, I surely did know of her. Sad for her family. Loduth Glover Foley (Alexandria VA)

I cannot believe I am having to read about this. I already had the news but now that I am seeing it here it is hitting home. Vicki was a very dear Aunt who loved her family with all her heart. Almost 20 years ago she took me in as part of the family and never waivered from sharing her love with me as one of her own. I think writing this is the first time I have cried for her. She had such a long battle. I cherish every moment and every visit I had with her. They don't make them like that anymore. Will miss you and always have a special place in my heart for you Aunt Vicki. God Bless you and keep you. You are loved.
