“ So sorry to hear about Doug. I have a handicapped son Michael. He and Doug were friends for many years. If i saw Doug and Michael wasn't with me Doug would point his finger at me and say "Mike Rush's mom". Doug liked to give hugs. I knew both of his parents, there were wonderful people. Doug was the light of their life, you could tell that just the way they spoke of him. I never met had the opportunity to meet you siblings but want you to know you have my deepest sympathy.

“ Being a nurse, I am blessed to have cared for Doug and his parents. It's been several years, but I remember his parents as kind, gentle people. And Doug (aka "Dougie") was ALWAYS the bright light in my day! Having a daughter with Down Syndrome myself, I understood Doug and what a precious gift it was to know such a fun-loving guy, not a care in the world, and the epitomy of unconditional love. My sincerest sympathy goes out to the entire family as well as to anyone whose heart is as broken as mine at this loss. They say, "Heaven gained an angel".....well, this time, they REALLY DID! Rest in peace, my dear child of God.

“ Dear Family of Doug,
We are sorry to hear of Doug’s passing. I first met Doug when he was about 11 at the HP Store across from the New Martinsville Bank. Your folks were so wonderful and made sure that Doug was exposed to all the things that children needed to be able to handle. I worked at the bank for 4 summers and over that time looked forward to the daily visit from the Cade’s. Many times your Dad had Doug hand me the deposit. He was so excited to be able to do that “grownup” act. Over the years, running into Doug at one of his restaurant jobs always made our day. He was always so friendly and polite. We haven’t seen Doug for awhile, but we will never forget Doug and all that he accomplished in his life. May God be with you as you lay your dear one to rest. Love,

“ I worked with "Doug" for 8 years...What a Sweetie!!! He always asked about my "Kitties" and so loved to see pictures of them. It was hard to leave him when I moved away. I'll never forget the Joy he brought to mine and my daughter's days...our Life,

Whenever he went to Mc Donald's, he'd run towards Emily smiling and saying "My Sweetie Pie". Rest in Peace our Sweet "Dougie Doodle"...you were a gentleman and loved by SOOOO many. God Bless your family at this difficult time.

“ doug was my friend. i do not say that lightly or casually. we are not supposed to get overly close to the people we work with, but spending every morning with doug and not caring about him was as impossible as not laughing at his jokes and pranks. we spent countless hours together playing a card game with our own bizarre rules, and i lost weight one spring and summer running around parks trying to rebound his foul shots. doug was a force of nature, his friendship was a gift, and if there really is a God, by this time Doug is enjoying do-nuts and Dukes of Hazzard re-runs in his own special part of Heaven.
