“ Ed and I were part of a Little League baseball team that traveled to Massachusetts to compete in the national semi-finals in 1965. He and I experienced a bit of an altercation on that trip, and, at the team's 50th reunion, we both apologized and laughed heartily about that event--and told each other, "I love you, man." That meant a lot to me and I think to him, as well. He was a good man and this is indeed a big loss. Condolences to all family.

Rest in Peace, Ed.

“ Ed and I have been friends for more than 50 years. A fellow classmate at Bellaire High School, and a valued friend indeed. My greatest memory of Ed was the day in South Bellaire at the baseball fields, we were horse-playing. He threw a bucket of the stuff that used to to put baselines, etc on baseball fields on me just to get even with me over the prank I played on him. The last we spoke, we reminisced and laugh together over it, May you rest in peace my friend, I won't forget you!

“ Going through life trying our best. Should we go east or west. Loving and caring along the way. Should I leave or should I stay. Thou leaving doesn't mean the the end. Continued loving, caring and making amends. You've gone from earth this much is true. Loving, caring memories will always continue. Your loved ones here will miss you a lot. In our hearts will always be a precious spot. Grand babies will hear of Nono Ed. Sharing loving memories in our head. Know you'll be missed with pain. God willing we'll meet again. So now as I close this post. Edward Joseph Dalto Sr. to you I toast. God comfort loved ones still here. Help us love and understand with care. RIP
