“ Paul,
Very sorry to hear about your mom....Always enjoyed seeing her on her porch in the summer and admired what a "fighter" she was against her many ailments in her later years, an example of how important life should be at any age.

“ I didn't know Mrs. Norman but I knew her husband and he was a fine man. A truly fine and good man. My favorite teacher in high school.I pray they are now reunited. God bless all.

“ My deepest sympathy to Louise's family. I got to know this wonderful lady when I volunteered with her at Reynolds Hospital in the gift shop. She was our Auxiliary President even while she was so sick. Prayers to all. Mickey Massey

“ Louise was always a woman of faith, one I was happy to get to know through a pen pal program our youth group had years and years ago. As I grew she was a constant support in the church, always had a smile and a hug for me and would hold my hands while we talked. I loved her like an extra grandmother and looked forward to seeing her in church. The First Christian Church and the community have lost a very special woman. While I mourn her earthly life I praise her because she is no longer sick or hurting.

“ I remember Louise and her mother, Margaret Fogle, when I attended a church there in Moundsville (been away from WV since 1962 but my memory serves me well in remembering people).

My heartfelt condolences to the family of Louise.
