“ I was so saddened to hear of Lisa's passing. It was so wonderful to see her at our last reunion and spend some time with her. Lisa and I spent time together in Spanish 3 with Mrs. Papagan at Central and then Senior year when we took a class at Wheeling College together. She was so kind and helpful and funny. Saying prayers for her daughter and all of you as you grieve Lisa. Much love and hugs.

“ So sorry fory loss Red,

I just wanted you to know my heartfelt sympathies are with you. I know I haven't been on social media, and in touch, since the night Trump got elected and I lost it but that is another story.

I just wanted you to know Carol and I understand your grief since we went through the same with her younger by 8 years sister who died in her 40's over 20 years ago from cancer .Anyway, this little poem helped me and maybe it will be some comfort to you. I hope so as you deserve peace.

I Am Not Gone
I remain here beside you
Just in a different form
Look for me in your heart
And there you will find me in our love which forever lives on

In those moments when you feel alone
Look for me in your thoughts
And there you will find me in sweet memories that burn strong

Every time a tear
Forms in your beautiful eyes
Look up to the heavens
And there you will see me
Smiling down from Gods glorious skies.

“ Lisa was a beautiful person inside & out. She & I shared a love of Bruce Springsteen & we connected over his music. I feel it would be appropriate to quote him in her honor- "love is a power greater than death, just like the songs and stories told". May your love for Lisa and your fond memories of her carry you through your grief until you meet again in the Heavenly Kingdom.

“ I was Lisa's classmate at then Wheeling Jesuit College. Lisa was one of the most down-to-earth and kind persons with whom I had the pleasure of interacting. I know she fought the good fight here on earth. May the perpetual light now shine upon her.

“ Mrs. Baron, Jamie, and family. You have the deepest sympathies from me and my family on your loss of Lisa. Lisa was an absolutely wonderful, beautiful, smart (so smart), and kind person. Knowing her from kindergarten all the way through graduating college was truly an honor for me and my family. Lisa always kept the GPA of our classes way up there and guys like me, Hegedus, and Stiglich kept trying to drag it down. Thank Goodness for her efforts. May she rest in peace and know that Heaven is now a better place with Lisa there.

Take care,
Terry Truax, Jr and family

“ Lisa always brought a light and love into the room. Her preschool kids loved her so much- I know my two kids who had her sure do. My son is now 18 and graduating in the top 5 of his class and my daughter loves to read. I believe Lisa had a part in their success by providing them a great foundation for the love of learning. You will be missed here on earth- but will be loved in Heaven.
