“ Dear Frohnapfel family,

I am so sorry for your loss. My two short years as Abby's choir teacher left me with so many wonderful memories of her smile, her sneaky sense of humor, her intelligence and her kindness. My favorite will always be the way she looked at me when she earned a solo in 8th grade: big eyes, that dawning grin, and absolute astonishment and joy. My heart breaks for you, and for for everyone who loved her.

“ Brenda, Clem, Abel and family, You are in our thoughts and prayers at this very difficult time. We have no words to ease your pain away except to know that God must have needed her more than she was needed on Earth. I hope you can draw strength from your precious and short 16 years with Abby. You will be able to laugh again I promise, it will take awhile but one day you will wake up and think of something funny she did or say and just laugh. Other days you will just cry and its ok to cry. Please know we love you all- hugs-

We are so sorry to hear about Abby. Sometimes God needs very special angels, and he certainly got his special one when he picked Abby. Our prayers are with you and your family in this time of need.
