“ Lexi was always kind to me when others in her same friend group were not. She was beyond talented and so intelligent. She was never swayed by the opinions of others and was her own person, and what I've now realized years later into adulthood is just such a difficult trait and quality to find in other humans. She was truly a rarity and much too good for this world. Rest In Peace Lexi, I know you're one of the most beautiful of angels.

“ I met Lexi, Ricci, and 'Doc' last year at Nationwide Children's Hospital. My grandson has the same heart condition as 'Doc'. My grandson and 'Doc' were next door neighbors in the hospital and I had several great conversations with Lexi. Even though I only knew Lexi for a short time we made a strong connection. She was a fascinating woman with a lot of love for 'Doc' and Ricci. She made a lasting impression on my life and I am heartbroken. My deepest sympathy to all who knew Lexi. My prayers to you Ricci and 'Doc'.
Love to you all,
Martina

“ Ricci, Doc, Robyn and family,
Lexi was a passionate, caring, wonderful person and a fierce loving mother. She was always asking questions and making sure she had all the answers so she could provide the best care for Doc. I remember the times we would say "Let's not tell her she was right" knowing that if we did, we would get the smirk of I told you so :) I have great memories of her smile and kindness. I love the story behind the Matryoshka doll (Russian nesting dolls) tattoo and that she could talk so honestly and openly about her life. I love that when I would put my foot in my mouth she would reassure me and laugh with me. She made me want to be a better person. I will never forget her smile and the love she had for Ricci and Doc. Sending love, prayers and comfort.

“ I knew Lexi only through SA basketball and coach Williams, and I had given her a ride home a couple of times from practice. It was through watching her practice and games and seeing her determination to get through whatever she was faced with that I knew she had a place in my heart. I've not been able to get her off my mind since we got the news of her passing. Coach Williams and I send our love and prayers to the family.

“ Ricci, Doc, Robyn, and the rest of the family,

I will never forget Lexi. I loved her intensity, eagerness to learn, drive to help others, and her sweet smile. One of my favorite memories with Lexi was when I came around on my daily rounds and asked if there was anything I could do for her. She nicely declined and then asked in all sincerity if there was anything she could do for me. I laughed but she said that she meant it, she would like to be able to help us if we needed anything. That sums up Lexi for me.

I will miss her terribly and grieve with you all. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Lexi. Lexi was a wonderful person with a big heart. After the recent loss of my mother and brother Lexi would talk to me and try to make me feel better. I'll miss her very much. I pray that her family can find comfort.
