“ Sorry to have missed the visitation as we had 2 deaths in the congregation I serve last week. Alice was one of the most gracious souls I have ever known. She was a blessing to the church and to all who knew her. Now she knows the full outcome of her blessed life of faith. Prayers and encouragement to all family and friends.

“ Alice was one of the most wonderful people I have had the pleasure to know. When I worked at Elmhurst she was known for her cheerful demeanor and beautiful smile. Everyone, staff and residents alike, loved her. I will miss her but I know that she was ready and that she is now resting in Peace.

“ Prayers and Blessings to the whole family of such a wonderful woman. She was such a faithful member of Messiah and one of the very best instructors of many children in Moundsville. And most of all a GOOD friend. I cannot be there with you as I am in NC but know that I care and am thinking of you. Love Lois Gray.
