“ Alice was a great friend to me and my mother. Right after 9/11 she called me to see if I would like to go to a Gaither Concert in Pittsburgh. She had two tickets but Cork didn't want to go. I thanked her and we went. I wondered how we could enjoy this after what had happened in New York. But God showed up and comforted me. I remember this outing often and appreciate her friendship. Condolences to the family.
