“ Dave, Sharon and family. So sorry for your loss. Allan was a wonderful man who always had the time to stop and talk with you. He was always a positive role model for all he touched and our community. He did have a great smile. May God be with you in Allan's journey, as it is not ending, but beginning. My thoughts and prayer are with you. Always, Dave Pettit

“ *To the Combs family,
Very sorry to hear about Mr. Combs. One of those quiet guys who should be a role model for all husbands, fathers, and grandfathers, who left this small part of the world a better place than when he got here. I'll always remember those days in high school of going over to Baptist gym with Frannie, Hank, and others to play against the "old" men. My thoughts go out to all of Mr. Combs' family and many friends. JAYKNAPP*

“ Sharon & Family, I am so sad for you all to hear of Alan's passing. I know your hearts are breaking for your great loss but rejoicing that Alan is safe at home with Jesus. He was such a blessing and encouragement to me as his new pastor and so faithful. When I think of Alan, I think of Proverbs 20:6 "Most men will proclaim each his own goodness, but who can find a faithful man?" Well we found one in Alan Combs! I love you and am praying for you.

Sharon and Family;

So sorry for your loss, but also rejoicing for Allen is whole again and is in his heavenly home with the Lord. I know Sharon you will draw strength from the Lord and He is with you and may he give you comfort daily dear sister in Christ and friend!! Such a great smile, he was a good man and I am sure a good example to you, his family and friends, bless his heart!! I know you have wonderful memories to sustain you all in the days ahead, that is a blessing and gives Roger and me comfort also. Take care and know many are praying for you, and you will see Allan again one day Sharon!! Love and prayers____
