“ I am so very sorry to hear of Alma's passing. She was my father's cousin. He was Glenn Davis and was related to her through the Knisleys'. To help you understand the connection...his maternal aunt, Rose McCormick, was married to Frank Knisley. But I regress here...I worked for Joyce's Floral Bow-K and Alma came in one day, took one look at me and knew immediately who I was!!! She recognized me because she said I looked just like him! We talked for quite a while and she asked about my dad so I gave her their telephone number and they would talk quite often. I liked her. I liked her a lot and it just doesn't seem possible...well, you know what I mean. My condolences to the entire family. Tish Davis Ice

Ron and John....So sorry to hear about your Mom! Lot of good memories of going to visit as a kid!! She was always a favorite Aunt! I was planning on bringing Dad on Monday,but the winter storm came and he and Mom were afraid to travel that far at their age! Dad is taking it pretty hard!....We will keep you in our prayers!!
