“ Alma Lee always met everyone with a smile. She was friendly and helpful. My father was always happy to see her, whether it be at One-Hour Martinizing or a family event. My grandmother ("Aunt Grace" to her) always spoke well of her. She was a wonderful person.

“ My heart is breaking as I have to say goodbye to yet another loved one. Aunt Ammie was a wonderful aunt. She was loving, caring, funny & wild. My trips to West Virginia always included a stop at the Van Scyoc home. Linda & I visited her several times at the nursing home before covid hit. Tony would go with us and we would have a great visit. The last time we were able to see her was 2019. We took a selfie of the three of us. So many memories to cherish. Rest In Peace my sweet aunt. P.S. slap Tony for me!!

“ There are so many wonderful memories of Aunt Amy. She had a wonderful sense of humor and beautiful smile. I also remember green beans cooking in her kitchen every time we visited her and Uncle Bernie.

My condolences to the family
