“ Sweet Amy I still don't want to believe you are gone. I will forever cherish the last day we spent together eating lunch with Aunt Carla. I'm going to miss your hugs, how excited you got playing softball or talking about cheer. I'll miss how you and Aunt Carla could have a conversation about anything. We love you Amy and until we meet again we will be forever missing you 🧡

“ Amy was my 1st cousin and was born just a couple of months before my daughter was born. But while I was still carrying my daughter I couldn't keep my hands off of her. She was such a bright ray of sunshine. As she grew up that sunshine got brighter and brighter. She was full of spanking and was the most lovable person I ever met. Her hugs and giggles will never be forgotten. I will always carry her love in my heart.

“ The very first time I met Amy was at a Special Olympics event. That was more years go than I care to admit to, (1983), and what struck me was the big grin and twinkle of mischief in her eyes. Little did I know I would meet her again about 10 years later. I remembered her as soon as she grinned. I’m so sorry for the loss of this funny, clever, mischievous lady. Peace be you Amy.
