“ Anita and I became best friends on the first year of Middle School in Fort Wayne IN aftrr move to Fort Wayne in 1962. We spent time together after graduation. We shared many up's and Down's the past 62 years. Anita became a part of my family as well with her mom and family. She became close to my 2 boys and my brother David the minute he came home from the hospital after his birth! I well miss her phone calls, the last call was the Monday before enter the hospital.

I will miss you ever day the rest of my life dear friend.

*Love you
