“ Eddie, i am very sorry to hear about the passing of your father. When I read about it in the chronicle online, my heart went out to you because I too know what it is like to have lost a father. You were a very influencial part of my life growing up in New Martinsville, by steering me in the right direction in life. As young as I may have been, I still to this day remember our talks in the gym and of course the jam sessions with your CD player. I didn't know your father very well, but if he was anything like his son, this world has lost a great father, mentor, and friend. Sincerely, "Stevie" Iams

“ I WAS SO SORRY TO HEAR ABOUT TUB'S PASSING WHEN I SAW. I WAS GLAD THAT I HAD THE CHANCE TO SEE HIM AND TALK WITH HIM. I HAD ALWAYS MISSED THE CHANCE TO SEE WHEN I CAME BACK TO NM EACH YEAR FROM FL BUT I AM SO GLAD I DID NOT MISS THE CHANCE LAST YEAR NOW. WE ONLY COME BACK ONCE A YEAR. SO OUR TRIPS ARE NOT OFTEN. BUT AM SO THANKFUL I DID GET THE CHANCE TO VISIT WITH HIM. BUT I AM SORRY TO MISS THE FUNERAL.
