“ Bill, I still remember when I first met Ann - in this family of "big and tall" people, I thought she was the cutest little lady I had ever met!! So sorry for your loss and so happy I shared a nice chat with Ann at mom's 100th birthday reception held at the church a year ago last May.

“ Our condolences to Bill and your family. I knew Ann [and Bill] mostly as they were friends, family and generous helpers of my mom and dad, Bill and Helen Herrick. But I have a favorite memory of Ann as a younger mother and wife. I worked as a teenager in the "old" store, when Herrick's was located next to the Esso station in Steelton. I can picture the early morning summer sun shining in the front windows as I stood at the register. Often, just after opening, in would rush Ann, face smiling and feet hustling, as she went about the business of gathering up whatever she needed to keep her brood at home happy. She was in and out lickety-split, leaving a swirl of energy in her path. Growing up in New Martinsville and at St. Vincent's, I noticed the young mothers I wanted to become like some day, and Ann was definitely one of those people. Blessings and hugs to all.

“ Ann and her family lived next door to my Aunt Carole and Uncle Clay [Randy] Lamb on Susan Street in New Martinsville. I remember her quick wit and she was always joking. She had a way of making my teenage and young Adult problems seem funny. She loved life, and saw something humorous in everything. Maybe Heavenly Father had a need for her humor in Heaven. My prayers go out to Bill and his family. She will be missed.

“ I went to school with Ann, 1st thru 12th. All of the class liked her. I remember in high school math class, (Mr. Henthorn) Ann and I were the two top students in the class. Mr. Henthorn came up with a pop quiz in math between her and me, without our knowing it was coming. It was all oral and we had a few seconds to answer. She won after a long battle. She will be missed. - Bob Miller
