“ Dear family, Ann was an amazing lady, her smile was so beautiful and when her and your dad sat behind me with Tammy and the children and your dad those too alway made me giggle cause your dad would always say something to her and I would try to not laugh Tammy I look back at her she smile and just try to hide the laughter. Those three always made me snicker, they loved having us come and listen to your dad play his music at community building I always told her mom he reminded me of the willie Nelson and hank William jr, she say now don't tell him he'll have a big head my go she how I loved your parents and Tammy such powerful Christians. I am truey sorry for your loss and will have family and friends in my prayers and thoughts always. May you all find comfort that she is with your dad and love ones who went before her. God Bless you all.
