ME

“Aralynn and I were pretty close. She was the best and sweetest girl ever. She would make me laugh whenever I wasn't in the mood for a laugh. She would always just make sure I was ok. I loved her so much and it hurts not gonna be able to laugh together in class anymore and messing around in school. We won't be able to send each other really funny videos to each other. I won't be able to hear her behind me saying "what's up sexy mamas" or "heyyy baby girl" or her saying "imma touch you". I'll never get her warm hugs again. I will miss her drawing on my papers in class while I'm trying to do my work lol or even talking in class and won't get any of are work done or start on it. I'll miss everything abt her. I'll miss not being able to hear or see her in class beside me working on her drawings. She meant so much to me and I wish she knew that. She would always be in the bathroom doing hilarious dances that would make all of us laugh so loud. I hope she's finally at peace in her mind and looking over all of us and cheering all of us on from here forward. Rest in peace beautiful I'll always miss you and love you forever and I'll never forget all the memories we had together and I'll never forget you. LLAK 🧡🕊️”

“ I was so heartbroken to hear about your beautiful daughter, Aralyn. I teach at RES and have such wonderful memories of tutoring her when she was younger. She was a fun, adventurous, and bright girl whose laugh was absolutely infectious. My son, Lincoln was also in her class, and we are both deeply saddened by this loss. We are sending all our love and support to you and your family. With deepest sympathy, Annette Duke

Hi, my name is Kendra Straub. I was one of Aralynn's teachers at RES. Aralynn was amazing. She could have me laughing and frustrated in an instant. That smile and fluttering eyelash look she would give me to get out of trouble, will be etched in my mind forever. She loved to make miniature things and bring them to school to show me. She would even make tiny moveable drawers with hidden treasures inside. She would always come visit me when she was going through the halls when she was in 7th & 8th grades. She gave the best hugs and we always exchanged I love yous as she would hurry to wherever she was supposed to be. She was a quirky, beautiful soul that will be forever missed by this old broken heart. I pray she has found the peace that she so desired. Love and prayers to all others who knew and loved her. She may be gone, but she will never be forgotten. ❤️
