“ Dear Gary, Beth, Scott & Families,

Our deepest sympathies to all of you. Arlene was such a beautiful lady. No matter how she was feeling the past couple of years her smile never failed. She always made us feel like family at all your family gatherings here in Pittsburgh, PA. I (Cathy) will especially miss sitting and talking with her at them. She will be missed dearly. Love and prayers to all of you.

“ Dear Gary, I have always considered you and Arlene friends. And when you would share health challenges and she would gently probe for advice, I always felt her one of my greater family. I and others will miss her priceless smile and her indomitable courage and openness to life and all its surprises both good and otherwise. I am sorry I will be away for her ceremony but trust I will be thinking of you both.
