

Ash, Tyler

May 23, 2011

Ash, Tyler, age 20, of Woodsfield, Ohio, died Monday, May 23, 2011 at Barnesville Hospital, Barnesville, Ohio.

He was born September 1, 1990 in East Liverpool, Ohio, the son of Randy Jones and Tiffany Ash Jones of Woodsfield.

Tyler was a student at WVNCC in New Martinsville; treasurer of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society at the college; and was a member of Mt. Olive United Methodist Church in Sardis, Ohio.

In addition to his parents, survivors include a brother, Gage Ash of the home; maternal grandmother, Mary Ash of Sardis; maternal grandfather, Thomas (Sally) Ash of New Martinsville; paternal grandparents, Kenneth and Jerri Jones of Clarington, Ohio, paternal great grandparents, John and Lillian Miller of Clarington; an uncle, Thomas (Courtney) Ash of Germany; cousins Landon and Ainsley Ash of Germany; and his girlfriend, Mikayla Phillips of New Martinsville.

Family will receive friends on Thursday from 2-8 p.m. at Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 751 Third Street, New Martinsville, where funeral services will be held on Friday at 11 a.m. with Pastor James Green officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to Phi Theta Kappa New Martinsville Chapter, c/o WVNCC, 141 Main Street, New Martinsville, WV 26155.

“ sitting at Mcdonalds in Muleshoe Texas. While coming into Muleshoe there was this smiley face painted on an outhouse looking building. When I see that smilely face it always reminds me "SMILE JESUS LOVES YOU". I also remembered my brothers passing when he was 15 and I was 13. His name is Christopher David Timmons. I stayed angry for 24 years until that resentment almost killed me. today i am free from that anger and hatred. Forgiveness is powerful. Matthew west song. Peace and comfort to you and your family

“ To the family and friends of Ty,I grew up with Ty through school, even though we were never really friends those 13 years of our schooling I know he was a great friend to those he was friends with. He was also a great athlete and had a lot going for him. But of course you know all that... I'm sorry for your loss. Ty will be greatly missed by a lot of people. Rest in peace Ty.

“ One of the Lords greatest gifts is the gift of life, yet it is fleeting here on earth, rejoice in the memories shared here on earth with loved ones. The greatest gift is eternal life with the Lord and loved ones who have recieved their Angel wings. Lord Bless you and keep you.

“ I didn't know Ty myself, but my son Jeremy did and Coach P. is my brother. I just wanted you to know I am thinking of your family as you go through this horrible time. Like I said, I have a son, also and I can't even imagine the pain you are feeling. If you notice in nearly all these posts of sympathy, everyone is praying for you and asking you to turn to God for your strength and courage to face the difficult days ahead. God be with you and remember Ty will always be with you, too, in your memories and in your hearts.

“ Our condolences to the parents. As grieving parents you need to know that God will sustain you through intense sadness. Therefore; approached the great "Hearer of prayer,"-Ps.65:2) trusting that he will give you the help you need during the most devastating experience parents can face. May you all have peace.

“ Ty was a good friend to my son Joey. He was at my home on several occasions and he presented himself with such grace and honor each time I had the opportunity to speak with him. My heart aches for his family and for the loss of my son's heart. I pray the peace will be found through Christ's loving arms. Amen.

“ Ty was one of the few men I have ever been in love with. Never was there a time I was with him that he wasn't making me laugh and smile no matter the situation. I have known him ever since grade school and he never changed he was always kind loving funny cute and a little of a goof ball =) I will always love and miss him I just hope I can live a life worthy of his memory. Tiff, Mary, Gage and Randy. May the memories of Ty fill your heart with joy for the time we all did have. But nothing will take the pain for the fact that the time was so short, just remember we have an angel watching over us now with that amazing smile of his on his face.

“ Tiffany & Mary, I am very sorry for your loss. Tyler was a very good kid and was loved by many. I know growing up Ty was by far my best friend. I remember every morning we would wait for the other one to wake up and then away we would go. Playing ball with his uncle Tom, yelling at the Super Nintendo when we would lose the game...and fighting with each other about who was the first to slap the Jack in Slap Jack. Some of the greatest times that I will never forget about my childhood involve him. Ty will forever live in my heart and I know yours too. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers
