“ My Aunt Barbara did a lot of things for me over the years, too much for me to list but one of my favorite memories is when she hosted a birthday party for me, I was about 10 or so. She bought me a blue pin-striped shirt dress. I loved it. I truly loved it. I wore it until I had worn holes in the elbows of the dress. She was amazing.

“ For over a quarter century Barbara manned the ticket booth of the Glendale Drive In and lent a gentle face to the organization. To the theater-going public she was the Drive In, and for years after she retired from her esteemed position the customers asked after her and inquired about her well-being. I had the unique opportunity of knowing Barbara as a co-member of the Drive In team. Her unassuming manner lent an air of elegance to the business and made all of us who worked there feel good about ourselves. She used to make homemade hotdog sauce for the concession stand, and man was it tasty! She was devoted to helping her brother, John, and succeeded in keeping the family on an even keel through her grace and quiet understanding. All who had the privilege of knowing her will miss Barbara in the years ahead. May God bless her and bring peace to the troubled hearts of her beautiful family. --- Tom James
