

Barger, Riley

January 13, 2010

Barger, Charles Riley, age 80 of Moundsville, WV died Tuesday, January 12, 2010 in Reynolds Memorial Hospital, Glen Dale, after a valiant fight with cancer.

He was born August 19, 1929 in Boulder, Colorado, the son of the late Guy Henry and Marie Louise Barger.

He was raised in Moundsville; graduated from Moundsville High School; attended Bethany College; and served in the US Air Force.

Charley was a born salesman; co-owner of the former Barger Appliance Store; formerly had worked for Segos Home Medical Equipment in Florida; and was currently employed by the Marshall County Chamber of Commerce. He was a former member of the Marshall County School Board; a lifetime member of the Lions Club; a Deacon at 3rd St. Presbyterian Church; and was an avid sports fan that never missed a chance to enjoy a WVU game.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Nancy; a son, Guy; two brothers, Robert and Charles; sisters, Cecilia, Sarah, his twin, Ellen; and infant twin siblings.

Survivors include his sweetheart, Bonnie Fieszly; her daughter, Barb Fahnstock; his daughter, Jenny Barger of Colorado, a sister, Mildred Herchler of SC; step-daughters, Deborah (Mike) Kyrck of Moundsville, Sue (Ron) Thompson of Jasper, GA, Cynthia (Mike) Maidens of Moundsville, and Nancy Lantz of Moundsville; several grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and nieces and nephews.

Charley donated his body to the WVU Human Gift Registry.

Family will receive friends on Friday from 10am until time of Memorial Service at 11am at Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 400 Jefferson Avenue, Moundsville with Rev. Tim Wilt officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to the 1st Presbyterian Church, 3rd St., Moundsville, WV 26041, or Moundsville Lions Club Eyeglass Project, or Strand Theatre Project, or to charity of donor's choice.
