“ Kelly, Brenda, Mike, and Sandy, & Family-children I am sad to hear about Craig, I knew Craig since he was little boy, came into Leo's market, where I worked, just fun to be around, I will miss him too. he had that head of pretty natural blonde hair, just like his Dad's.. So shocked of his passing.. I said, it can't be.. No, NOT Craig!! I am sad to hear of your loss and I remember very fond memories of Craig, even at my age, we were friends back in the 1980's.. heartfelt thoughts & Prayers Condolences to his entire family. Hugs

“ Sandy & family, My heart is saddened by the news of Craig's passing. I know he's been sick for some time. Sandy, you stood by him through it all. My Mom, Martha, and brother, Lee, are so sad too. Craig is pain free & that's a blessing though he's left breaking hearts. Craig served our country- be proud! Years have passed since seeing Craig, but I have so many childhood memories from school & summers when he came to the "trailer park." His smile was amazing. I remember one time when he took his sister's bike... I think it was pink & he was jumping a ramp. Of course the tire blew because Craig was too big for the little bike. He knew he was in TROUBLE, but it all worked out. He was the guy the guys went to when they wanted snuff... he was a friend to everyone. His heart was golden & still shines! Treasure your memories, turn to God for comfort, and find peace in His presence. You all are surrounded by love; embrace it. Sincerely, Kim Blackwell
