“ Darlene, you were the oldest of eight which automatically put you in charge. You were the big sister. I was always so lucky because you were there to always take up for us. To make sure we had what we needed. Because of you I won the best Valentine box, or best Halloween costume, or cheerleading moves, or take me to rent my prom dress. I will forever keep you in my heart. I know you are now restored to that beautiful sister that loved her family .

“ My dear big sister , Daddy's baby girl , Mom's first born .
She is my book end . She would walk the last mile with you & give every last ounce of herself to help ...She loved bigger than big,, just ask her to pick up the bday cake ,it's was going to be bigger than the table . XOXO I will always miss her but I Know she with Dad & brothers & already organizing something... LOL

“ So sorry Amy and family. When Janet was a waitress she told Darlene that she wanted to go out with me. Well Darlene wasn't long about telling me. That was almost 47 years ago. Tom Beall

I do not know how to start out I have known the entire family for 50 years. We met and became instant friends and for many years we made memories. I always told her I loved her like a sister and with that said I have now lost my last. I will say Darlene was far better to me than I was to her. But I loved her. She was a true friend.
