“ Bessie was a bright light to our little Cameron church. She was loving and patient to Teri, Brenda Missy and I. She welcomed us into her home for yahtzee games and a sleep over or two. We loved her.

“ Bessie was the last surviving member of the WHS class of 1940. I met her several times when she attended the alumni event in Woodsfield. She and my mother, Betty McElfresh Ogden were classmates, and I always enjoyed hearing their reminiscences. My sincere condolences to the family. John Ogden
