“ I was so sorry to hear about Betty. I have know here since the early 70's when she trained me when I worked at McCrory's with her. And then later in life she became my sister's mother in law. She always a something nice to say about everyone. She will be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire Babe family.

“ Grandma was a caring, loving, woman....always smiling and happy. I spent a great deal of my childhood with them. There were many camping trips every yr they always made sure we grandkids were able to go and have fun even if it was just North Bend. I have many many wonderful memories that its very hard to share them all. I'll miss her laugh
