“ Betty I know you’re in a better place. I’m going to miss you dearly. I will forever cherish our talks. I will never forget all the stories you shared about growing up with grandma and being out at the farm.
Love you ❤️

“ We are going to miss you Betty. I am so happy I got to see you in January. I hope you knew how much you were loved. I can’t imagine the reunion you had yesterday. I can see you and Grandma Dorothy with your fancy tea cups . I bet they had a big party to welcome you home. Rest easy. Love Amy

“ Rest peacefully Betty. I’m going to miss talking to Betty while visiting my mother, Joan. They were roommates at Moundview and friends in high school. Betty was a hard working, thoughtful, great lady all her life. Enjoyed listening to her life stories. Michelle Weekly Myers
