We are so saddened to learn of Betty's passing. A lovely person with a lovely sole and personality she was like one of our family we always tried to include Betty when we visited the center her room mate was our family. There was a decimate bond between the two. Betty was always looking out for Stephanie even when she didn't feel her best. We are so sorry for your loss. Please know that others are also saddened. oroes are the best. Both Betty and Stephanie are rejoicing with family and friends that have gone before them and they are free of pain and suffering love and prayers to you. The richmonds. Joe and peggy
