“ So sorry to hear of Betty's passing. I remember going to their farm as a child with my grandparents. I always loved going to the dairy barn and drinking fresh milk out of the tin cup.

So saddened to hear of my good friend's passing. Betty was a wonderful person to many and was my neighbor growing up in Marietta. Oh the fun we had at the many square dances we attended and where we met the Smith family. Betty and Charlie were meant for each other. She will be missed. I will miss her yearly Christmas letter and all her family news! May she rest in peace and all my heart felt sympathy to Charlie and family. You are in my prayers.
