“ I would like to convey my deepest sympathy to Betty's family. I am her younger cousin in Beaver, PA. Her mother, MaryLouise and my father, Tom, were brother and sister. Their other brother was Elmer whose career took him to other parts of the US and he ended up in Kingsport, TN. Our grandparents were Elmer and Myrtle Goettman, Deer Lane, Rochester. I only got to see her from time to time, but I remember she was always upbeat and happy. She always relayed stories to me about living just around the corner from us. My older brother, Tommy, and sister, Gayle spent lots of time with the Day kids and having fun since they only lived about a block away on New York Avenue.

Condolences from Suzanne Goettman Opalinsky and my brother, Tom Goettman, Jr.
