“ My thoughts, Prayers, and my heart continues to be with all of you at this difficult time. Bev was one awesome lady. I feel Blessed to have known her and visited with her throughout the years. I will always have the best memories of her. I wish I could be there with you all today to share the celebration of her life, but could not get away from work. Please know that each of you are in my thoughts and prayers today and everyday. I love you all dearly as my own family. If there is anything any of you need, I'm just a call or text away. Please know that in my heart and mind, I am with you today. Each one of you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Sending you my Love and deepest sympathy. May God touch and comfort you today and everyday. Your momma was the best, and you kids were her world. She did an amazing job raising you to become the amazing individuals that each of you are today. Keep her memories close to your heart and she will always be there. Her spunky style lives strong in each one of you.

“ So sorry to learn of Beverly passing. She and I were born on the same day and in the same hospital, Sistersville, W.Va. I believe Beverly was about two hours older than myself. We were good friends up through high school but after school we went our separate ways and lost contact with one another. My condolences to the family at this time of your loss. Richard Busche

“ Scott, Chrissy, Lacey and family, our family is so very sadden to hear about your Mom. Although I hadn't seen her for years, I hold dear in my heart, our friendship and the memories we made together. She was always such a strong person who I respected very much. She was a hard worker, a terrific Mom and a good friend. I know she would want you kids to take care of each other in the coming years. She loved you all so very much. May God bless each of you. Rest In Peace, my friend. Sincerely, Cathy, Chris, Shawn & Jessica Poe

“ I am so shocked and saddened to hear this. Bev and I were really close friends in high school. We grew apart due to living in different places and raising our families. However, we kept in touch and remained good friends. Bev was a person with a big heart and was always true to her own self. I will miss her dearly. Prayers to her family. She was a devoted and loving mom. Fly high my friend. Love you
