“ Grandma always put others first no matter what she was going through. She was determined to make sure we were all healthy, and well fed. Just a couple weeks before she died She was in the nursing Home with every reason to feel sorry for herself and be concerned with her own health, yet she was worried about me, insisted that a nurse take my blood pressure, and would not rest until my boys ate all her lunch 😊 Grandma was always present in the moment and I felt at peace when I would see her. She was always in the moment and present.
