“ We went to church with Sis Bev for years. She would slip 50.00 in my purse or jacket every Sunday service. She wanted us to be able to take our kids and go out to eat with everyone after service. She tried to do it without me knowing, but I knew and will always love and appreciate her. I loved her smile. She was a beautiful lady! My son Noah remembers her as his candy lady. He said he had several ladies in the church that kept him supplied with candy. She was one of them. I never knew that. ha ha
