“ Mike was a good friend from High School who wrote me letters and kept me laughing while in Viet Nam. He was a no nonsense guy and knew when he was in that hospital, we were thinking of him and praying for his suffering to end. He accepted his fate with courage and still had a sense of humor about his situation. He joked about his many difficulties but enjoyed the simple pleasures of Chocolate Pudding. His inspiration to me and ability to fight the fight will be missed. Tim Pitchford Munhall Class '62
