“ We just ran into Twila at WalMart last week. What a lovely woman. She sold us our first home, the trailer she owned on 7th street., and it was a big deal to a young couple just starting out. Arlie worked with Twila at Coronet Foods longer than I did, but I found her to be just delightful. Just a classy lady. Arlie was always tickled by the way she showed so much attention to our son, J.R. Just can't believe she's gone. This world has lost one of the good ones. Without her, this world seems a little more empty. Let me express to the family our deepest condolences and sadness at this time of sorrow. Your in our thoughts and prayers.
