“ Gosh, what can I say, my sincerest condolences. Your mom and family always hold a special place in my heart. Lynda I still remember mom and dad visiting your house and we would play in your basement when we were kids. I always cherished visiting with you all on or occasional visits after we moved away and miss you guys still today. I was happy that we could get mom up there for one last visit in 2017 before they passed. I pray for you an your family

“ Mrs. Makris was a friend of the family for as long as I can remember. Even after we moved away, she would open her home for us to visit. Her smile was warm and honest. Prayers for the family. Claudia and Pochi.

“ Ms. Macrus was my absolute favorite teacher. I remember everything she taught us in 4th grade including consoling us as we witnessed the Challenger explosion live on TV. She always remembered her students decades later. She will be greatly missed. Prayers to the family.
