Dear God, I know you are here for me, As, I am here for you. Without you in my life, I wouldn't know what to do. To remember and cherish all the wonderful memories. Is what my brother would want for me to do, I will keep him in my heart forever, Keeping the loving, special bond what we both always knew. _____

“Words can be so powerful and yet sometimes inadequate when we try to express our inner feelings, and especially so, at times like this. Although I hadn't seen nor talked with Clint in many years, I was touched deeply by the family love that I witnessed at Clint's viewing and was deeply moved when I read what Clint had written on 1/6/09, what he entitled "I Did It His Way." How I wish that I would have been able to sit down and have a chat about spiritual things with him. I was truly blest with his insight and faith that he wrote about on 1/6/09 and have shared it with several people at church. One cannot write like Clint wrote unless they are Spirit-filled. He is walking with his super smile on the streets of gold. His memory will encourage all of us to "Do It God's Way." I pray for God's special anointing and blessing on each of you. A friend in Christ, Jim

“ What a wonderful man Clint was - kind, witty, gentle, giving and gifted in so many ways. I can still see the twinkle in his eyes, the upturn of the corner of his mouth as he smiled and winked when he talked about things he loved or when he would read poems of his enduring faith that he had written at challenging moments in his life. The reason for his early passing we may never really understand. He is now with his Creator and forever at peace. He will be remembered and missed. May laughter fill your heart as you remember times with him.

“ I could have asked for a brother as precious as my brother Clint. He meant the world to me. He was a brother and friend that I treasured with all my heart. I miss him so very, very much. He had a heart of gold, and so many awesome qualities that it would take a paper a mile long to list. I am so thankful that I had Clint as a brother, playmate growing up, friend, and he will forever remain in my heart. I love you, bro! "Ninky". We shall meet again. God Bless and have mercy on his soul. Always lived by "WWJD" Your lil sis, Jill

“ Dear Jeana and family, So sorry to hear of your brother's untimely passing. We planned to attend the visitation, but spent the evening at the ER with a cousin. (He's OK - bronchitis) Just wanted you to know we were thinking of you and keeping you in our prayers.
