“ Shar, no words can express how sorry we are for you and your family and how much we loved and will miss Brady. You couldn't have asked for a better son or person. Brady was truly one of the best, compassionate, caring and loving. We considered him a very important part of our family. We will never forget the times spent with him at our house a at the lake. Him and Dylan loved to go down to night fish and sleep on the pontoon boat. They were always up to something and always making us laugh. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace Brady we are so proud of the wonderful young man you became. We will miss you terribly.

“ I never had the honor to meet Brady. His I'm heartbroken for his family and friends. His service to our nation is appreciated and respected.

I highly recommend that the family look into Taps.org. Their support is heart healing. You may also find comfort from another patriotic group, the Honor and Remember foundation. It is run by George Lutz. george@honorandremember.org

“ To all of you in your time of loss. There is no pain greater than that of losing a loved one. Especially at such a young age. I have always heard only good things about Brady. My memories of him are at a very young age, but wow, what a brave, handsome young man he had become. I will continue to keep him in my prayers. I pray that all of his family somehow will find strength and faith to get you through this terrible tragedy. God bless you all, and Rest In Peace dearest Brady. Love and prayers, Monica

“ We thank you, Senior Airman, for your Honorable service to our great Country. It is because of men and women like you that we continue to enjoy our freedom and liberties today. May God welcome you with open arms as you approach the Gates of Heaven.

May your family and friends find a measure of comfort through His healing and mercy and may they all soon realize that, although no longer with them on this Earth, you continue to watch over them from your place among the Angels.

Stand down, Brady. Your mission is now complete. May you rest in Honored and Eternal Peace. God Speed, Sir.
