“ I did not know your mother until I married Mike Allman. Right from the start she treated me like she had known me all of my life. She always had a big smile - she was the kind of person that I loved being around! She truly showed God's love. Mike and I are so sorry for your great loss.
Love, Jeanne Allman

“ So sorry to hear this. My name is also Brenda Wade and over the years people, doctor offices and other business have gotten things mixed up. I have always told them if they had to get me confused with someone I am glad it was someone as nice as Brenda. I am sending hugs and prayers to you all.
