“ Omg I still can't believe he is gone. Brian was such a wonderful person that would do anything for anyone. He was the type of person that always could make you smile no matter how bad of a day you were having. Working with him and Crystal was the best. I knew when they were working it was going to be a great day. He always knew what to say at the right time to make you smile. You are truly going to be missed May you Rest In Peace Miss and love you buddy.

Thank you so much.
We do rely on God's love, grace and mercy. Although it will be hard at times, our memories will make a way where right now we can't really see.
God bless you!!
