“ We wish that we could have made the trip to be there in person. It is so hard to believe that all nine of them are gone on to glory. Rest in Peace, dear Aunt Bula.

“ Glen and Diane,

I so much enjoyed visiting your family as a child. Aunt Bula was so dear to me. I loved visiting my grandmother, her sister, Ruby, and having the opportunity to speak with your mom on the phone, even if it was only for a few minutes at a time throughout the years. She had such a loving and gentle spirit, as well as your father. I am forever thankful that I had the opportunity to visit her one last time when we came home for Aunt Virginia's funeral years ago.

You both will remain in our prayers.

“ Bula was such a fun person. She never grew up, she loved to laugh and have silly fun. When I was a teenager her daughter Diane and brothers Stanley and Glen we would always have fun whether it was chocolate pudding pie fights or just setting on the porch Diane and I playing our trumpets. She always made me feel I was welcome and treated me like I was family. When I went to see her in the hospital and visited with Glen as ill as she was she new who I was, and still was able to joke with me calling me "wildcat" of course we laughed. She enjoyed life . I'm sure Melvin and Stanley were waiting at heavens gates to hug her. May Diane and Glen be able to remember all the good times with their mom, and to also live life to the fullest.
