“Scotty was the kindest, calmest, caring & dedicated police officer I've ever known. His kind caring personality will be remembered by the many citizens he protected. One night I forgot to close my car hatch & observant Scotty was kind enough to get out of the cruiser & close it. He always stopped to say hello & see how I was doing even after he was diagnosed with cancer. Despite his chemo causing him pain, he didn't complain & didn't want to bother anyone. He fought long & hard & ever so bravely trying to keep a smile for his girl, Julie. He enjoyed her visits & she went whenever he wanted her to visit. His kind loving ways & service will be remembered by many residents of Benwood & McMechen & all who knew him. Julie know that you will always be Daddy's little girl & he will continue to make you laugh & protect you. Love & prayers for you & your Dad.”
