“ I have known Rex for many years. He is a fine of a fellow you could ever meet. I lived in Limestone and knew him from attending Limestone Presbyterian Church with his family. He was a very well liked man in the community. He will be sadly missed by family and friends. He is now resting comfortably in heaven with God.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Rex and I became very good friends over the few years I was fortunate enough to have God put him in my life. He will be dearly missed. I will always remember our days of singing old songs and playing the spoons with him. Forever in my heart He and your mum will be. xoxoxMaggie Smith
