“ From incredible life stories to his adoration of his beautiful wife everything Carl did was an act of love. When Ken and I got engaged he spoiled us with homemade old fashion chocolate milkshakes to celebrate. I loved hearing his stories and later reading his thoughts he wrote down to share with us on marriage and the hard work it requires. May he and Shirley rest in heaven together in joy for all eternity. Praying for all who knew and loved him.

“ As a much younger cousin, we weren't really close in life, but, when we spoke together, you were always very nice to me. I shall remember our conversations very fondly. Larry Brown

“ When we were there Halloween (it was so cold!) I remember Uncle Don making a big pot of the best soup I had ever had. Then out for trick-or-treating. We had such a good time.

Uncle Don was quiet but always found lots to talk to Dennis. They just talked quietly. We will miss you. We love you, Uncle Don!

“ Don and I worked together. I introduced him to my wife's sister, Shirley. I never thought we would become family. He was the nicest guy and I was thrilled when we became in-laws.

Bobbie and I thought of you as a brother. We will miss you. We love you, Don.
