“ I have so many great childhood memories of Carla, her family, her home on 7th Street, and The Home Restaurant. I remember our Easter dresses and going to Trinity Episcopal on Easter Sundays. I think our dresses came from Tots and Teens. We made trips to Zanoons, Mercers, and Rodriguez Market. We played hard and had a good childhood. I saw Carla just a few months ago, and we shared a laugh and some stories about our lives back then. God bless Carla, her sisters, and her Mom.

“ Barb,
I am so sorry to hear of Carla's passing. Jana was like a sister to me, your family my second. I remember lots of Carla- from watching her work at the "Home Restaurant" to being stuck out some muddy road, 4-wheeling with a few others. Carla always brought me peace. I am holding all of you in my heart and prayers. Sending love and light.
