“ Randy: So sorry about your Dad, he surely is in Heaven with no pain, and at the peak of his powers. He is there with your Mom and all his friends, including my Dad Leroy. I just wonder what they are up to, I am sure politics, and city council are at the top of their discussion list. When I saw the obit in the Echo I said a prayer for him and your family. The line from the Bible said it all about your Dad: "Well done good and faithful servant, come and share your Masters joy"

“ To all of Keith's family, you are all in my prayers. I am already missing Keith so, but I know he is with his beloved Beulah and is keeping watch over all of us! Keith and I "watched" the Yankee games together over the phone. It will not be the same without him, but hopefully he can get that team straightened out! He will be missed by so many people that he brightened their days with his candy and conversation. I just hope that I can take a lesson from him and share his caring ways with others in my daily comings and goings - he truly knew no stranger!

“ Randy, So sorry about your dad. He was one of "Life's Good Guy's" who left this world a better place than when he got here and touched more people than probably even he realized. I always respected those "depression era" people who worked at the House of Carpenter who really knew what hard times really were. My thoughts and sympathy go out to you, your family, and all of his friends.

“ My sincerest sympathies to all of Keith's family. Sure will miss Keith. :(He sure was a "one of a kind". Used to be that Keith predictably sat in the 3rd row from the back, on the right side of the sanctuary at Simpson. Sometimes when running the bulletins, one would slip through and not print the worship order on one side. This was given to Keith as a joke. ... and a pack of crayons was left on "Keith's pew" so he could fill it in as he liked. LOL :) Wednesday morning popcorn breaks began as Keith worked at House of Carpenter on Wednesday mornings. He needed a a break...as he retired from the H of C...he continued to come over to the church office for breaks. He always brought microwave popcorn, a can of pop, and chocolate. (I rated...I got several pieces of chocolate). And because Keith loved a good laugh, we have "Keith's page" in our church newsletter. Rest in Peace Keith...I know you are there with Beulah.
