“ Steve, Susie and I are so sorry to hear Chuck passed away. We just saw it in the town paper Nov. 22. That is why we were not there. We would have loved to have seen you. The Dorsett's were wonderful neighbors. They are missed. So sorry!

“ Steve,

I remember Mr. Dorsett as the Sunday School superintendent when I was a boy growing up at Proctor Christian Church. Not long before I was born, my grandfather, Arthur L. Booth Sr., passed away. Grandpa Booth was Mr. Dorsett's predecessor as Sunday School Superintendent before his untimely death. I remember Mr. Dorsett as a very kind man whenever my family would see him in New Martinsville.

My prayers are with you and other family members during your time of mourning.
