“ The Year: 1972, The place: River High School, The time: 5th period gym class, The weather: Torrential rain. The posse: Charlie Huffman, Donnie Alleman, Jim Littleton, Chuck Riggerbach, Larry (Big AL) Flor & ????. The Situation: Gym Class cancelled (but not for us). We grabbed a football and headed out to the field for 3 on 3 tackle. Played for 15 minutes in the rain and mud laughing the entire time. Only time for 1 more play, Charlie centered the ball to Chuck Riggerbach who handed off to me for an end around, but wait, Huffman breaks across the middle wide open, the pass complete from Flor to Huffman and Charlie breaks into the open with only one man to beat. He fakes, he jukes but Littleton grabs Charlie's shorts, Charlie keeps running and Littleton holds on ripping Charlie's shorts off! Charlie runs 60 yards for the score with no pants (and no jock strap). We celebrate in the end zone winning the game 6-0. There we are Hi-5ing and taunting the losers when we look over and see Mr. Reardon and his entire art class glued to the windows witnessing the event and Mr. Reardon just shaking his head. We ran back down to the locker room showered and headed to our next class. Just another day at good old River High. This was just one of many great memories I had with my good friend Charlie Huffman. I like many of his friends will never forget him. Rest in Peace My Friend. You will always be Remembered! Prayers go out to all the family.
