“ To the Smith Family, All my sympathy on the loss of your Dad. I met Charlie thru your Mom, Betty, as she was my neighbor while growing up. She would take me with her to square dances where we met the Smith boys and sisters. What great times we had together! Betty and I kept in touch mainly at Christmas time thru our yearly Christmas card. We visited them several times and they came to our house for various occasions. I still miss her card every year. Your Dad was such a kind soul and always so happy. I know he has suffered the past few years with his eye sight but now he can clearly see. I'm certain your parents are dancing in heaven now! God bless your family! I will never forget your Dad and Mother as long as I 'm on this earth. Love to all.
